The Mission of the annual Family Peace Festival is to provide an opportunity for children, youth, and adults of the greater Richmond area to gather in celebration of peace and diversity. It is our hope that this will foster a growing sense of community.

The Interfaith Council of Greater Richmond has joined with the Richmond Peace Education Center, Islamic Center of Virginia, and other organizations for the past five years to support this important event. The centerpiece of the Family Peace Festival has been and will continue to be an interfaith worship service. In addition, the tragedy of 9/11 is remembered with a moment of silence.

Event exhibitors from various faith-based and non-profit organizations that serve the family, i.e. American Red Cross, Virginia Blood Services, Care-a-Van, SCAN, YMCA/YWCA, as well as vendors who display and sell their crafts are invited. Exhibit space is still available.
